

Call To Arms

Every person in the Football family has been touched directly or indirectly with Cancer. On the weekend of Friday 4th, Saturday 5th and Sunday the 6th, we ask the Football Family to unite and ask each player in Queensland to donate a gold coin prior to taking the field on the June weekend. The Cancer Council Representatives in your region will be in contact to assist in the community opportunity.

"I was shocked when I first heard that one in two men will be diagnosed with cancer. That's more than five guys in just one football team. I'm really proud to support Cancer Council's Call To Arms - it's a great way to raise funds for important research and support for men's cancers. And it gets men thinking about their health, as well the health of their team mates. I'm encouraging all sportsmen to get involved in Call To Arms no matter what sport you play, what level you're at or what your age is." - Tim Cahill.

By participating in Call To Arms, you will not only raise vital funds for cancer but you will also help your community think about what they can do to prevent cancer. Remember when it comes to cancer we are all on the same team.

We hope that you will be able to support this year's Call To Arms, and help us tackle cancer.
